

Netgem Partners with Tubi to Build on its 'Stream Big, Spend Small' Promise

London, UK - 10 February 2025 - Netgem is excited to announce a new partnership with Tubi, the leading free, ad-supported streaming service. This collaboration brings Tubi's vast library of movies and TV shows to the Netgem TV platform, offering UK viewers an unparalleled selection of free entertainment.

Netgem TV users will now have access to thousands of movies and TV episodes, spanning every genre imaginable. From blockbuster classics like "Jerry Maguire" and "Eat, Pray, Love", to British comedies like "Shameless" and "Peep Show", and gripping documentaries such as "Hoaxed" there's something for everyone to enjoy.

"This partnership with Tubi is a major step forward in our strategy to build the biggest offering of inclusive high-quality content on the Netgem TV platform," says Sylvain Thevenot, Managing Director of Netgem Streaming services. "We're committed to giving our ISP partners the best entertainment service, and Tubi's massive library perfectly complements our already extensive content, solidifying Netgem TV's top spot for value in the UK."

This collaboration significantly enhances Netgem's entertainment proposition, building upon the extensive free content already available through Freeview Play and an extra 130 channels. Now, viewers can enjoy even more movies, TV series, and Tubi Originals, all without any additional subscription fees.

"We're thrilled to be expanding Tubi's footprint further in the UK, and that Netgem's customers will now have access to the largest free content library in the country." says Ross Appleton, Tubi's GM for the UK.

Netgem TV users can now access Tubi's vast content library through ISP partners powered by Netgem TV, including TalkTalk, Community Fibre, Connect Fibre, BRISK, and more.
